

BENEFITS OF LANDSCAPING VICTORIA EDUCATION MEMBERSHIP

The benefits of LV membership are many and varied. A strong, stable and vibrant professional body is critical to influencing government policy and to the development of a sound public profile. It ensures the continued strength to positively influence the destiny of the industry.

Our membership base is also varied. It includes service and product suppliers, as well as professional landscape architects, designers, contractors and students. All have high work ethics and are committed to the ongoing success of the industry, to the elevation of standards, and to increasing the profile of qualified landscape professionals. Our philosophy is 'quality, pride and professionalism'.

Education Members have access to the following benefits:

Networking

Exchange ideas, build relationships, and socialise with all sectors of the Landscape Industry at Association meetings and events.

Industry Nights

With informative speakers, various venues of interest, and the opportunity to keep abreast of all the latest products and technologies in the industry, LV industry nights are fast becoming a necessity for landscape professionals.

Trade Magazine

Keep up to date with events and new products as they are launched. The LV trade magazine 'earthstyle', fortnightly 'E-News Update' and the two weekly e-communications; the 'Weekly Job List' and the new 'What's Going On', have all evolved into professional publications with exciting opportunities for exposure and information.

Public Magazine

The LV magazine 'Landscapes Victoria' is directed to the public and showcases award-winning LV members' work. This is a great opportunity for exposure and information as the magazine is distributed to the general public at the Melbourne International Flower and Garden Show (MIFGS).

Insurance

Education Members have the opportunity to join the LV Group Insurance Scheme. This offers substantial discounts on Public Liability and Professional Indemnity Insurance.

Training & Development

Education Members are eligible and encouraged to participate in the training and professional development workshops offered by the LV.

LV Website - www.LV.com.au
